Sir:

Replying to the Office Action mailed April 28, 2004, applicant attaches herewith a Terminal Disclaimer which should place the present application in condition for formal allowance.

The claims in the application remain as claims 1-16, or are now 1-15. No amendments are presented. Applicant's claims define over the prior art as is evident from the Office Action. In view of the Terminal Disclaimer submitted herewith, the present application should now be in formal condition for allowance, and such is respectfully requested.

The Office Action indicates that 1-15 are presently pending. Applicant agreed orally with the examiner to the deletion of claim 16 without prejudice to applicant's rights, including the rights provided §§121 and 120, to proceed with a divisional application without any penalty whatsoever. This deletion was to have been made by examiner's amendment. Applicant understands that claim 16 either has already been deleted or will be deleted by Examiner's Amendment.

Claims 1-15 have been rejected on the basis of obviousness-type double patenting over claims 1-15 of U.S. patent 6,596,502. While this rejection is respectfully traversed, it is nevertheless easily overcome by the submission of a Terminal Disclaimer.

Accordingly, applicant submits herewith such a Terminal Disclaimer executed by undersigned attorney of record, whereby there is no need according to MPEP 1490 to comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Applicant respectfully requests withdrawal of the rejection.

No rejections are imposed on the basis of any prior art or under §112. Accordingly, applicant understands that applicant's claims are deemed by the PTO to be in full

Amd. dated May 19, 2004
Reply to Office Action of April 28, 2004

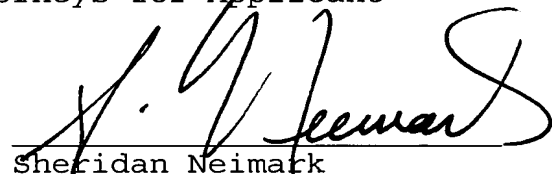

conformance with §112 and to define patentable subject matter under §§102 and 103.

Applicant believes that all issues have been addressed and resolved above, whereby the present application should now be in condition for formal allowance. Accordingly, applicant respectfully requests early formal allowance.

Respectfully submitted,
